

3. I am lodging a complaint with the Advertising Standards Authority (“ASA”) of South Africa regarding an advertisement (“the advert”) that appeared in the Mail and Guardian newspaper on 26 November 2004. The advert appears to have been placed by the “Dr. Rath Health Foundation Africa” (“the foundation”) and the “Treatment Information Group” (“the group”).

4. I am submitting this complaint in both my personal capacity and after duly being authorised to do so, by the secretariat of the Treatment Action Campaign.

5. For the sake of convenience, a copy of the advert is attached marked “ASA 1”.
