

11.2. It deliberately misleads consumers about zidovudine (AZT). AZT is approved as both safe and effective by the Medicines Control Council of South Africa (“MCC”) for treating HIV/AIDS and preventing mother-to-child transmission of HIV under certain conditions, in combination with other antiretrovirals.