

11.4. It deliberately misleads the public about the MCC by falsely claiming that the MCC has proposed new regulations that will “effectively prevent free access to lifesaving vitamin therapy and information about it.”