

19.8. With regard to the MCC, the advert states:

19.8.1. “Incredibly, two weeks after the publication of the Harvard study [the NEJM study referred to], the Medicines Control Council proposed new regulations that will effectively prevent free access to life-saving vitamin therapy and information about it, and recommended that HIV-positive women take AZT during their pregnancies.”